BONDS MAY BE REFUNDED.

Mr. W. E. Coffin, of a New York Syndicate, is here to make the City a Proposition.

Proposes to Refund $15,000 of the Old 6 Per Cent. Bonds—Last of the Old City Bonds.

Mr. W. E. Coffin, representing a big New York syndicate, is in the city to propose a refunding of old city bonds. He called on Mayor Lang yesterday and made arrangements for having the mayor call a meeting of the council for tomorrow night.
He has conferred with the finance committee of the council, and the plan is now to refund $15,000 of the old Paducah and New Orleans railroad bonds, issued first about 1850, for $110,000. They then drew 10 per cent. interest for thirty years, but were subsequently refunded at 8 per cent., and afterwards for 6 per cent., the present rate of interest. There are $45,000 of these old bonds now, and they can be refunded at perhaps 3 or 4 per cent., it is thought, thus saving the city considerable money, as the last council did in refunding $60,000
in bonds the past year.
Mr. Coffin represents the same syndicate that refunded the bonds
last year, and is here to propose a refund of the remaining $45,000
in bonds, which constitute the last of the old bonds.
The called meeting of the council will be held tomorrow night to hear his proposition and act upon it.

BRIDE OF 14.

Cousins Marry Out in the County
Today.

Pete Duncan, aged 23, and Mel-vina Duncan, aged 14, both of the county, were married today.
They are cousins, and the written consent of the bride's mother was filed with County Clerk Graham
when the license was procured.

Senator Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, has abandoned the contest for re-election. He gives as his principal reason the action of the democratic state executive committee in barring gold Democrats from their primaries.
He says he is still a bimetalist, but does not believe the United States can independently restore silver to par with gold at 16 to 1. He attacks
Gov. Culberson and Congressman Baily for advocating the taxation of raw materials.

THE PRESIDENT COMMENDED

als For His Patriotic Stand
For the Honor of the Old Flag.

MCKINLEY MAY FREE CUBA.

Believed to Be Arranging to Intervene and Will Declare War if Spain Tries to Retain.

NO CESSATION IN WAR PREPARATIONS.

Washington, March 8.—The war preparations by the United States and Spain continues to be pushed on vast proportions and at an enormous expense.

Spain has purchased five modern warships from Brazil and has six torpedo boats now in process of construction.

President McKinley today directs
one of our special representatives now abroad to purchase three large warships. Other vessels in this country are now being negotiated for and will be armed immediately.

All the navy yards are being crowded to their utmost capacity
day and night.

Last night a ship load of ammunition was dispatched to Dry Tortugas.

The house committee this morning
reported favorably on the bill to appropriate $50,000,000 for the national defense. The bill will pass the house this afternoon and will go at once to the senate.

The verdict of the Naval Board of Inquiry is expected on Friday.

Things today are a little quieter
though there is no cessation in war preparations.

Washington, March 8, 2:30 p. m.
—It is believed here this afternoon that the president is most certainly arranging to free Cuba and is preparing for war in the event that Spain tries to retain the island.

The vote on appropriating $50,000-000 will be taken in the house this afternoon at 4:30 and will be passed almost unanimously.

President McKinley is receiving telegrams from all the leading Confederate generals, prominent democratic editors and people from all parts of the country commending him for his statesmanlike and patriotic stand.

Princeton.

Princeton, Ky., March 8.—The 4-year-old child of Jeff Prince, a farmer living six miles from this city,
was burned to death Saturday night.
While playing around the stove her clothing was ignited. A brother had his hands badly burned while trying to extinguish the flames.

Ike Sturgis, the Metropolis saloon keeper charged with selling liquor to Mr. Heideman, an inebriate, on complaint of the latter's wife, was tried in the Metropolis police court yesterday and fined $20 and costs. The costs appended will make the drink

$40 in all.

BAPTIST REVIVAL.

Large Crowds Continue at this Second Church.

The crowd at the Second Baptist church last night was so large that extra chairs had to be placed in the aisles. Rev. Dobbs preached another good sermon to an appreciative congregation. There have thus far been eleven additions to the church, and there will probably be baptizing tonight. The meeting will continue throughout the week.

Remarkable Medical Discovery.

Danbury, Conn., March 8.—A discovery said to be even more remarkable than that of Prof. Schenk, of Vienna, in relation to determining the sex of a child before its birth has been made by Dr. Wilbur S. Watson of this city. Dr. Watson asserts positively that it is within his power to influence the sex of a child, and parents may produce at will a male or a female. The result of several years' experiments by Dr. Watson has just been made known to some of the physicians of this city and has aroused great interest among them.

QUARTERLY COURT.

Several School Cases Are Now
Pending.

Judgment Rendered Today In Favor of Attorney R. T.
Lightfoot.

Quarterly court has been in session again today. A judgment was rendered in favor of Attorney R. T.
Lightfoot for $50 against Henson and Stegar, whom he defended in the circuit court.

There are a number of cases of ex-
County School Superintendent, J. M.
Gilbert against district No. 6, for money due on supplies for which the district gave an order on the superintendent, and then refused to pay, but these cases are still pending.

There are also several cases pending against various persons for trees purchased from a nurseryman, who sues for their value, the defendants having refused to take them on the ground that they are not as large as the contract called for.

Extract of an editorial taken from the Western Review of Commerce, published at Chicago, Ill., dated November 19 last:

A Compliment to Paducah...

When we recommend an article or product it is accepted without question that we have thoroughly satisfied ourselves, by severe tests, of its value and worth, and that it is all that it may claim to be. The foregoing is sufficient to illustrate our position, and to justify what we may say when we make specific recommendation and extend our editorial commendations to the Brook Hill Garrard county, Kentucky, whiskey, distilled by Friedman, Keiler & Co., of Paducah, Ky. Both dealers and consumers can rely upon the character of the products of this firm, both in general and in particular, and we have no hesitancy in recommending them to our readers. Although we have no personal interest in the matter whatsoever, we believe in the policy, "merit to whom merit is due." In the light of too frequent adulterations and preparations of liquors, it behooves every one to scrutinize every brand, but, from the lack of proper facilities, such precautions are often neglected. To supply such want we have caused to be made close and critical examination and a searching chemical analysis, with the intention of printing the same, whether favorable or otherwise. The result, however, leaves us but one thing to do, and that is to state, regarding the Brook Hill Whiskey, that purer or better liquor has never been placed upon the market, and we recommend same to our readers in unqualified terms and advise them to place an order, at least for a trial, as their product is recommended by physicians as an aid to digestion, and is placed on our list of pure and wholesome food supplies.

The Brook Hill Whiskey is also bottled in bond, under the direct supervision of the United States internal revenue department, which is a guarantee of its absolute purity, age and excellence. Sold by all the leading drug stores, saloons and club rooms.

TUESDAY, MAR. 8, 1898

The nonchalance with which our Mayor declares ordinances "null and void" must give our judges a liberal dose of "that tired feeling."

CONSUL GENERAL LEE is today the cynosure of the eyes of seventy millions of people who are ready to back their prayers by millions of men and countless millions of money.

LIBERALITY towards manufacturing plants is the best way yet found by which to build up a city. What are a few dollars in taxes by the side of a plant employing fifty or an hundred men?

FIFTY millions of dollars would be a vast sum for Spain to raise, but it is a mere bagatelle to what Uncle Sam would be willing to put up, if nothing but war will settle the present trouble.

Those sensational newspapers who would make it appear that Speaker Reed and the President are not in accord should watch the "Czar" nowadays. They don't breed any but patriots in the old state of Maine.

It did not take the word of Fitzhugh Lee to prove that he would stand at his post of duty and lay down his life there if necessary. The old warrior demonstrated that fact years ago when he wore the uniform of the Gray.

THERE was something extremely sublime in the action of our honorable Mayor last night, when he dramatically declared the exemption ordinance null and void. The members of the council were somewhat paralyzed; but they will recover; whether the Mayor will do so without putting the city to the expense of a big lawsuit, does not yet appear. Meanwhile we can all, the Mayor included, live and learn.

THE perusal of the editorial columns of the Louisville Dispatch and certain other papers tainted with the corroding blight of free silverism, will show to what depths of disgusting and nauseating partisanship a paper can descend in its desperation when it discovers that it is repudiated by the best element of its own party. In its insane vanity the Dispatch imagined that it was going to run the whole state of Kentucky; that at its beck and call the leaders of the Democracy of this state would lose their identity and become the pliant tools of that conscienceless sheet. Having failed to become a dictator it vents its spleen upon the so-called bolters, and is now trying to read them out of the party. This puerile and presumptuous act will only make the Dispatch all the more ridiculous in the eyes of the sensible people of this state, regardless of their views on the money question.

THE magic names of the hour are McKinley and Lee. It is one of the beneficent providences of Fate that in this dark period of the Nation's history the two names about which are entwined the most sacred memories of the two great sections of the country are now inseparably linked in preserving her honor and adding new laurels to her fame. Only a craven coward would impute to the present administration anything but the most loyal and enlightened patriotism. Consul General Lee is today as much a part of the administration as is President McKinley, as far as the Cuban affair is concerned. Were the present administration lacking in patriotism, that noble old soldier would not be its official representative for all the honors in its power to bestow. The honor of the Old Flag is in safe hands,—in the hands of men who have been tried, and who would die rather than see one stain upon its folds.

Those who remember the marked advance in sugar-trust stock coincident with the enactment of the Dingley law, and the assertions of Democrats and Populists that this was due to permanent advantages given the trust under that act, will remember the explanation offered to the effect that the advance was due to the merely temporary advantage which the trust gained through its ownership of enormous quantities of sugar in the bonded warehouses of the United States and upon which it would get the benefits of the advance in tariff rates made by the new law.

It was shown at that time that the trust had more than half a year's supply of sugar in stock and would make large profits since it could add to its selling price the amount of increase in duty named in the new law. It was pointed out at that time that the gains of the trust under the advance which it could thus make in the price of sugar which it had in stock would amount to large sums and that it was due to the certainty of this additional profit that the stock advanced as soon as it was known certainly that the Dingley bill did not place an internal revenue tax upon the sugar already in warehouses. Recent facts have confirmed the accuracy of that statement. Sugar-trust stock, which after the enactment of the Dingley law reached within a fraction of 160, has within the past few days fallen to within a fraction of 120—a figure lower than that which prevailed prior to the enactment of the Dingley law. The explanation is easy and completely sustains the assertions made immediately after the enactment of the Dingley law that the large stock of sugar then in hand and upon which the profits were to be made has been absorbed. The profits have been made and now the stock resumes its normal condition, thus showing that the Dingley law did not create such conditions as to permanently enhance the value of the stock, and that the increase was merely temporary and due to the fact that the managers of the trust had laid in large supplies of raw sugar in expectation of the advance of the duties.

HANDS
Says a lady of culture—that white wonder—a woman's hand, over which artists have raved and poets sung, require much early training, as well as great care. The etiquette of the hands is as important as the care of it, for no matter how beautiful the hand, it loses half its grace and charm if it is awkward and incorrectly and gawkily used.

The well-bred woman should always remember that her hands should never be conspicuous. No matter how informal the occasion, she should never stand with her hands on her hips. She may consider it an attractive pose, but such an action is never becoming a gentlewoman. She should never use her hand in pointing, nor should she beckon to an acquaintance in public places. In both cases she is not only making her hand conspicuous, but stamping herself as ill-bred.

Both men and women should always pay particular attention to the care of their hands. They should never allow their nails to grow long and they should always be kept scrupulously clean and like clear pearl. It is vulgar to manicure the nails to excess. They should never be over-polished, cut to extreme points, nor be artificially rouged to an unnatural, over-rosy and "brilliant" hue. No woman, no matter how nervous her temperament, should ever bite her nails. By doing so, she not only injures her health, but presents a most undignified picture. The woman who bites her nails immediately puts herself upon a level with a baby who sucks its thumbs; and so does a man. The heavenly bejeweled hand is not in such good taste as that of the woman who wears a very few but exceedingly handsome rings. The overloading of the fingers with rings is the worst possible taste, and the woman who wears diamonds on her thumbs is nothing less than vulgarly personified. The practice of adopting every fashionable handshake is to be condemned. Strike the happy medium and always shake hands heartily; never in a pump handle manner, and not as if it were an absolute bore. When one shakes hands heartily, and as if it were a pleasure, it always makes you feel better for having met them.

COUNCIL MATTERS.

Dr. J. D. Robertson's ordinance was defeated last night not because it was not a good ordinance, and not because the council did not deem it so, but because some of the members thought it unjust to impose additional duties on the city physician after he was elected and his salary fixed. It is evident that it is not only practical, but would save the city a large amount of money each year besides.

There is to be another wrangle over the superintendency of the city electric light plant about April 1st, under the ordinance last night given first passage. The fight for the position will then be renewed. Capt. Fowler and others desire to get a good man no matter where they have to go to get him, and for this reason the ordinance as first read last night, making the office election, was amended, as any city officer must have resided here two years next preceding his election, and this would leave no alternation but to select some resident of Paducah. The matter requiring him to execute bond was also discussed, and it was decided to require a bond of him. Just what good this will do, however, cannot be seen. The first superintendent, Mr. C. C. Chapman, was required to give a $1000 bond, yet he gave the city the worst service imaginable, left the plant almost a wreck, and the city had to bear the expense just the same as if he had given no bond at all.

The market house ordinance is one of the most lengthy ever introduced. It contains about twenty-five sections, and is one that required the most careful preparation. Under it the hucksters, or peddlers, now taxed $25 a day license, can do business for $40 a year, a very moderate, and many think too moderate, amount.

The drug bill last night was again very large, and every time Capt. Fowler would read one there was a general laugh. Dr. Robertson, in advocating his city physician's ordinance, stated that at the present rate the city's drug bill will in one year amount to $3,500, and yet the city physician had said in a conversation that he would discharge the duties of city physician and furnish medicine at his own expense for $1,800 a year.

The first salary of City Treasurer Richardson was allowed last night. It was for three months and was just 25 cents—$1 per year.

An ordinance was given first passage last night that is designed solely to get rid of one steam pipe. It juts out to the sidewalk at the Clarke tobacco factory and Mayor Long stated that the company had been officially requested several times to abate the nuisance, but had failed. The escaping steam not only prevents people from passing, but is ruining the newly laid pavement.

The goats in Mechanicsburg must go. A petition was last night presented signed by 81 citizens requesting an ordinance prohibiting their running at large, and when passed, Mechanicsburg will have taken another step forward in the progress of a city.

The proposed ordinance governing Yeiser park is likely to occasion trouble. Chairman Smith, of the park committee, reported that the park could not be kept pretty if ice cream suppers were allowed to be given there in the summer, as has been the custom for some time past. The grass is trampled and killed, salt water is thrown out of the freezers, and general ruin is wrought. Besides, the walks are now encased by heavy wires that cannot be taken down, and if picnics are held this summer the people will have to climb over the wires will have to be cut down. Despite the ruin wrought by ice cream suppers, however, many of the councilmen favor them, and the ordinance will be awaited with interest. The park is about the only available place for them in summer.

PECULIAR TO THEMSELVES.

Special Cotton Colors of the Fast Diamond Dyes That Are Entirely Unlike All Other Methods of Dying.

Thousands of ladies in Kentucky now fully understand that dyes prepared for coloring woolen goods cannot be used successfully for the coloring of cotton and mixed goods.

The manufacturers of Diamond Dyes have long ago overcome the difficulty, and now their special cotton colors are chemical triumphs.

The cheap imitations have one all-round dye that they claim will color wool, cotton, and mixed goods. The result is that thousands of women are sadly disappointed when they use these crude dyes for coloring cotton and mixed materials. The users of these imitation package dyes get blotchy and muddy colors that cannot stand sunlight or wear.

The sixteen special cotton colors of Diamond Dyes are wonderful discoveries unknown to makers of common dyes. Every color is clear, deep, brilliant and fast as a rock. When you are about to dye cotton or mixed goods, ask your dealer for the Diamond Dyes. Cotton colors, the only reliable cotton colors in the world.

About the old story of the camel—how three philosophers heard about the animal and determined to investigate. The Englishman hunted through the folios of the British Museum, to find what had been said about the beast; the German went into his study, locked the door, lit his pipe and began to evolve a conception of the animal from his own consciousness; the Frenchman went down to Sahara to see.

PLAYED DESPERADOES.

Mr. Alvin Johnson Assaulted Without Provocation by Two Negroes—Beaten Up and Stabbed.

The Ruffians Then Bombarded the Clarke Tobacco Factory—Two of Them Caught.

Mr. Alvin Johnson, foreman of the drying department at the Wm. Clarke & Son tobacco factory on North Fifth street, was brutally assaulted yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock at Fifth and Monroe streets, by two negroes, Matt and Dee Grace, who were employed in the factory.

Mr. Johnson had started to the factory when he met the negroes. They knocked him down, beat his head against the pavement and came near killing him. Crying for help he finally succeeded in getting to his feet and running toward the factory, three blocks away. The negroes were in close pursuit, but the door had been barred when they got there, and the desperadoes proceeded to bombard the factory with bricks and stones, demolishing windows and breaking the door.

The employees at the factory thought the building was falling down, and ran out in great alarm, piling from doors, windows, and other available places. One darkey rolled out a second story window to a roof and proceeded by this route to terra firma.

Meanwhile there was great excitement, hundreds of people gathering at the factory, where the drunken negroes had been joined in their bombardment of the factory by Charles Rice, another employee. It was discovered that Mr. Johnson had been stabbed in the back, by Matt Grace, who had the knife. He escaped.

Officer Jones soon arrived in an express wagon and captured Dee Grace and Rice, the latter having to be clubbed and subdued by threats from the officer to use his pistol.

The defendants, Dee Grace and Rice, were presented in police court on charges of malicious assault with intent to kill and with a breach of the peace, and the case was continued until Thursday.

In default of $350 each, they were remanded to jail.

Mr. Johnson was unable to attend court.

EXPECTED COMPLICATIONS.

In the Motion For a New Trial in the Franklin Case.

It is Understood the Commonwealth Will Not Agree to a Special Judge.

The motion for a new trial in the Noah Franklin case will doubtless be as hotly fought as the case was.

It has been generally supposed that Judge Husbands would vacate the bench and allow Judge Bishop to try the motion, on account of his familiarity with the case, but such will probably not be done, owing to the objection of the commonwealth.

It is not imperative that Judge Bishop should try the motion, Judge Husbands having jurisdiction. A special judge could be put in only by agreement of both sides, and to this, it is understood, the commonwealth will never agree.

A WANDERING BOY.

His Father Writes Marshal Collins About Him.

Marshal Collins today received a query from W. T. Moneybags dated Kuttawa. Mr. Moneybags states that his son, Nolen, 16-years of age, with hair parted in the middle and a pair of sharp-toed shoes, is missing.

The youth left his home, Eureka, Lyon county, yesterday and is supposed to have taken a boat for Paducah, where a fellow has a little show with his dissected hair and pointed-toe shoes.

The police have as yet discovered no trace of the prodigal. They say it is like looking for the proverbial needle in a haystack, to search for a young man of that description among so many of his ilk.

KENTUCKY ELOPEMENTS.

Five Couples Have the Knot Tied at Metropolis—Unhappy Sequel of One Wedding.

Father Took the Bride From Her Husband—Mr. Broadfoot and Miss Harrison Married.

Other Weddings.

Yesterday was a day of many matrimonyes in Metropolis, Ill., no less than five Kentucky couples were married there during the day, three being from Paducah.

Mr. John Jones, son of Mr. Ed Jones, the grocer, and Miss Anna L. Allen, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. Harvey Allen, the well known station man at central department, eloped to Metropolis on the late boat yesterday afternoon, and were married by Justice Liggett. The couple were at the wharf awaiting the arrival of the Fowler when the bride's father arrived in a skiff, having driven to Metropolis.

He was too late to intercept the wedding, but got there in time to take charge of his daughter, take her to the skiff and bring her to the Kentucky shore.

The groom came up on the boat, and was met by friends and relatives, who were greatly disappointed. The bride was taken home by her father.

There was threatened trouble this morning, but the father was advised by an officer to give the bride to her husband, as he had no further control of her. Both are most estimable young people and the only objection was on account of the young lady's age.

Mr. George W. Broadfoot and Miss Alice Harrison, well known young people of the South Side, also eloped to Metropolis yesterday and were married by Rev. C. Pape. They returned and will make their home at Mr. Broadfoot's.

Thomas Donaldson, of Symsonia, Graves county, and Miss Emma F. Freeman, of Wiley, Marshall county, were married by Justice Liggett.

Mr. Henry Wyatt and Miss Emma Lee Jones, of Bandana, Ballard county, were married by Justice Liggett.

Henry Hale and Miss Melvina Williams, of Joppa, Ill., eloped to Metropolis yesterday afternoon and were married by Samuel Atwell.

Mr. Joe Jaeger, recently of Kansas City, and Miss Edith Sayre, daughter of Constable John Sayre, of Mechanicsburg, eloped to Metropolis yesterday afternoon late and were married by Rev. Jackson, of the Methodist church. They returned on the Fowler and are now at the residence of the bride's father, in Mechanicsburg.

POLICE COURT.

Finn Hamilton Up For a Breach of the Peace.

A Test License Case Decided By Judge Sanders—Other Notes.

There was a short session of the police court this morning.

Finn Hamilton, one of the young men charged with assaulting a young man on South Third street several nights ago, was before the court and the case was continued. There are two other named in the warrant.

Jesse Ellis, colored, was fined $2 and costs for driving a loaded dray across the sidewalk.

Mr. Charles Riddle, the tailor, was charged with violating the ordinance requiring a license. Mr. Riddle explained that he had not a merchant tailor's license because he carried no stock and was never required to carry one. He did not think he was liable. Judge Sanders decided that he was liable under the ordinance and dismissed the warrant on condition that he at once take out a license, which he did.

Charles Rice and Dee Grace, as mentioned elsewhere, were sent back to jail to await trial Thursday.

CHILDREN EAT POISONOUS ROOT.

Narrow Escape of Joseph Owen's Three Children Near Hinkleville.

They Ate the Root of a Strange Plant—Saved With Great Difficulty.

News of an almost fatal poisoning near Hinkleville, Ballard county, last Sunday afternoon, reached the city today.

The three children of Joe Owen, aged respectively 6, 4 and 2 years, were out gathering sassafras root. They dug up a root of some poisonous plant and ate it.

All three were immediately prostrated, and when found it was thought were in a dying condition. Neighbors did everything possible for them until Dr. Hollins could be sent for. When he arrived he saw the cases were very serious, and the unfortunate little ones were finally saved, after working with them all Sunday night.

The root they devoured was of a plant with a white blossom, but it is not known what it was.

DROPPED HIS WAD.

Thought Maybe the Police Could Find it For Him.

A prominent young man complained to Marshal Collins today that he was out taking in the town last night when he got a little too much good liquor on the outside, and somebody pinched his roll. He had $12 or $15, and had no idea who could have gotten it.

Marshal Collins informed him that he was sorry he lost his money, but he did not know any more about where he lost it than the young man himself. The young man has abandoned the search.
